Tuesday 27th [3.30pm]: curriculum information meetings with class teachers for parents/ carers of Y3, Y4 and Y5 pupils

Please do your best to attend curriculum information meetings as it helps to establish communication from the start about learning expectations, reading, other homework etc... If you cannot attend, information packs will be sent to all families.

Wednesday 28th: Y5 visit to National Waterways Museum in Ellesmere Port
Nb. now different location to termly calendar. A contribution of £5 per pupil is requested towards cost of transport.

Tuesday 4th October [3.30pm]: 'Friends of Sacred Heart' AGM.

Any parents/ carers interested in getting involved in fundraising activities are welcome. Nibbles usually provided at the AGM!

Saturday 8th October [10am]: family walk along the pedestrian path next to the Guided Busway. The plan is to meet near the Astley Street park and ride ready to depart at 10am. We are going towards Leigh as far as Lilford Park. Stay as long as you like in the park and perhaps bring a packed lunch. There is no charge for this event; fresh air is free! Please note:

- Family event so children must be with at least one adult.
- You must book in so that we know who and how many.
- You will be asked to follow some simple guidelines to ensure a happy, safe day for all; to be given to you in advance of the walk.

Y3 modelling smart PE kits. What lovely weather!
