Newsletter w/b 3rd October 2016

What's on this week:

Monday 3rd : Tyldesley Library visits for Y2 [9.30am] and Y1 [10.30am]
Classes will be walking to the library. Please send coat in case of rain.

Tuesday 4th [3.30pm]: 'Friends of Sacred Heart' AGM.
Any parents/ carers interested in getting involved in fundraising activities are welcome. Nibbles usually provided at the AGM!

Thursday 6th [depart at 8.45am]: Y6 to daily mass at St Richard's Church

Thursday 6th [9.05am]: Y3 'Rejoice'/ Tea n Talk [Y3 families welcome]

Thursday 6th [3.30pm]: Cross country training for [Y3-Y6] £1 per session
Please note that cross training is for those wanting to try out for the team. Please no younger siblings just joining in.

Saturday 8th October [10am]: family walk along the pedestrian path next to the Guided Busway. The plan is to meet near the Astley Street park and ride ready to depart at 10am. We are going towards Leigh as far as Lilford Park. Stay as long as you like in the park and perhaps bring a packed lunch. There is no charge for this event; fresh air is free! Please note:

- Family event so children must be with at least one adult.
- You must book in so that we know who and how many.
- You will be asked to follow some simple guidelines to ensure a happy, safe day for all; to be given to you in advance of the walk.

If you have emailed or put a message on Facebook, I have added you to list. We have about 7 families so far. See you near Astely Park and Ride at about 9.50am for register and instructions.

Message from Fr Paul....

Archbishop Malcolm has changed the order of the Sacraments.
In Advent [December], Y6 can celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
In May, Y4 can celebrate the Sacrament of Eucharist [1st Holy Communion].
Preparation for Communion will begin after Christmas when you will receive the dates for the 'With You Always' sessions. An introductory meeting for Y4 parents/ carers has been arranged for Wednesday 19th October at 2.45pm in school. Please do your best to attend.
