Dommy B

13th March 2017

Recently, Y2 have been to the Turnpike, in Leigh to see a performance of 'The Boy Who Cried Wolf' which was written and performed by Dominic Berry. Going under the name of Dommy B, he is visiting Sacred Heart on 13th March to perform a selection of his poetry, including improvisations using ideas thrown at him by our pupils! Signed books are on sale at the end of the day. Dommy B is a local poet and performer from the Manchester area.
